

Companion Pet Insurance makes it easy to care for pets

Certainly your pet may be fit and healthy today, but life does have surprises. Just like people, pets are subjected to illnesses and unforeseen accidents. Fortunately, veterinary medicine has sophisticated diagnostic and treatment options for your pet – but these options can often be pricey. Without pet insurance to help cover costs, treatment may be unrealistic to pay for. Don't take chances caring for your pet! Take care of them now and for the future with Companion Pet Insurance.

The Companion Advantage

Companion Pet Insurance offers flexible and affordable program options that allow pet owners to budget for emergency care and treatment for pets with:

- EASY CLAIMS Reimbursement checks mailed within a week of receiving all required information
- 5% DISCOUNT for pet owners who microchip their pets and register with 24PetWatch
- COVERAGE FOR LIFE with no need to change programs

Companion Pet Insurance FAQs

Q: If I enroll today, when will coverage start?

A: All coverage starts at 12:01am on the day following enrollment, with the exception of our comprehensive illness coverage under Companion Complete program which is delayed for 30 days.

Q: Will my Premiums increase due to age?

A: No.

Q: Which veterinarian can I take my pet to?

A: Any licensed veterinarian of your choice.

Q: Are there any exclusions?

A: Existing conditions, including those injuries and medical conditions which were symptomatic, noted or treated prior to enrollment, or within the applicable waiting period will be excluded from coverage. Exclusions for these conditions may be temporary or permanent.
